

Brown SWCD Office Narrative

October 9, 2014 – November 12, 2014

10/09/14: Goodrich and Peterson – investigate Hoffman site

10/10/14: Goodrich and Peterson – staked the Berg and Remus sites and investigated the Speckman site and the C. Hoffman site in Milford 31

10/09/14: Krueger sent out mailing to potential newsletter advertisers

10/16/14: Goodrich met with Jim Losleben at Spring Creek site

10/20/14: Goodrich and Peterson met with Schewe on project site and performed 'as built' check for Remus project

10/21/14: Goodrich and Krueger met with Redwood SWCD, RCRCA, and Knisley on Middle Minnesota WRAPS project

10/27/14 – 10/30/14: Goodrich and Krueger attended BWSR Academy at Breezy Point

10/31/14 and 11/3/14: Krueger and Goodrich finalized the annual newsletter articles and sent to Sleepy Eye Herald

11/3/14: Krueger prepared and sent out 120 tree order form mailings to past customers

11/3/14: Goodrich and Peterson staked Gode water basin project

11/5/14 – 11/6/14: Goodrich attended the third session of MASWCD Leadership Course training in Duluth

11/12/14: Goodrich conducted well and water table readings for November

11/12/14: Goodrich – radio spot on KNUJ

Outstanding Conservationist Banquet is set for Monday December 1 at Railway. Invites will be mailed out on 11/14/14.

Annual Newsletter: received proof from Sleepy Eye Herald 11/12/14. We need to review the proof and give approval and/or edits back to them by December 5. Newsletter is scheduled to be printed in December and circulated in January as usual.